The Epiphany of the Lord

ST. RITA CHURCH

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome, worship, inspire, and serve with love.

Pastor's Perspective (THROWBACK EDITION)

"Your Light Has Come" (Isaiah)

There are many signs of wonder that mark the Feast of Epiphany...

the star

the wise men

the mystery

What part, then, do we play?

Pious shepherds, on bended knee?

Kings who come bearing gifts?

What sort of play is this where Mary becomes the mother of God?

Where God enters the world in the lowliness of the manger?

The judgement of the world and its redemption that is taking place here.

And the Christ child in the manger is himself the one who pronounces judgement and the redemption of the world.

He repels the great and the powerful.

He puts down the mighty from their thrones.

He humbles the arrogant.

His arm overpowers all the proud and the strong.

He raises what is lowly and makes it great and splendid in his compassion.

Therefore, we cannot approach his manger as if it were the cradle of any other child.

Those who wish to come to his manger find that something is happening within them.

At the beginning of this New Year we do well to stand humbly before our God ~ who comes with love and compassion for all the world.

Peace,

FR. CHUCK
1-6-2002

Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

In Advent, Fr. Tim taught us about the Call to Family, Community, and Participation, one of the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching. In this New Year, we'll learn soon about the Church's Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable.

We saw God show this preference for the poor on Christmas, sending His son to us in the humblest setting. Now we look to serve Christ in all we meet, especially "these least brothers of mine" (Matthew 25:40).

Epiphany Blessing

Dear God,
It was You who inspired the Magi to follow the star to find You. Inspire us to seek You, as well. Bless our homes and families this season; make them places where we can encounter You through prayer and community.
Amen.

Reflections on Readings for the
The Epiphany Of The Lord

"Dromedaries From Midian And Ephah, All From Sheba Shall Come"

Today is the Feast of the Epiphany; the manifestation of Jesus as the newborn King of Israel. It memorializes the visit of the Magi, bearing gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Thus, these distinguished visitors from the east implied the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecies that the "wealth of the nations shall come" to Israel and that the Gentiles are indeed part of God's salvation plan.

In our first reading (Isaiah 60:1-6), Isaiah offered encouragement to the people of Jerusalem as they returned from exile, only to find their temple destroyed and their city in ruins. There could not have been a more disheartening time for the people of God. Isaiah's words of future encouragement were to "rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come. . . nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance." Even their lost sons and daughters would return from afar.

In our Epistle reading (Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6), Paul wrote to a Gentile Christian audience in Ephesus, telling them of the earth-shattering revelation not known to them or to the Jews of earlier generations — "that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise of Christ." These same Gentiles are today represented by the Magi's visit to the Christ Child.

In our Gospel reading (Matthew 2:1-12), we hear the account of the Magi's visit to the child Jesus, found only in Matthew's Gospel. The gifts they brought were significant in what they symbolized. It is said that the gold symbolized Jesus' royal kingship on earth, frankincense signified His divinity, and myrrh, a burial spice, symbolized His suffering and death. The Magi then thwarted the intentions of Herod to kill the child and they returned to their country by a different route.

Most of us can remember a time in our life that seemed totally bleak and disheartening, much like the Jews returning from exile in Babylon. Some people feel this way during the holidays. The words of Isaiah, "Rise up in splendor!", can be a comfort to us to trust in the Lord — our future is bright indeed. Others will walk by our radiance. God, our king has come to live with us and He will come again.
 He will show us the way.

2025 Coats for Kids

Once again, Trinity Council #4618 of Webster, with your donations and that of area businesses and residents, raised enough funds to purchase 552 (46 dozen) NEW children's winter coats for distribution to children of need in Monroe and Wayne Counties.

With funds left after purchasing coats, we will purchase and distribute new sneakers for children in spring '26 to many of the same groups that received coats.

The new coats were distributed over the first two weeks of December to 32 charitable organizations, school districts, and churches, which helped identify children as having need for a warm coat.

THANK YOU from the Webster Knights of Columbus to all who made a donation to this charitable program.

God Bless,

J. Stewart Coon, Chairman of Coats for Kids

Holy Beginnings Outreach

Cordially invites you to join us in prayer and conversation, for monthly gatherings of our LGBTQ+ community (family, friends, and allies welcome as well).

First Thursdays of the Month

St. Rita Trivia

In the early 1950s, St. Rita's annual Fiesta received national attention.

Do you know why?

Answer:

"Tippy" the dog won the raffle for the new car.

2026 Catholic Calendars

Available for pick up in the Church Greeting Area before and after Masses

Thank you to
Falvo Funeral Home
for sponsoring our annual
Catholic Calendars!

We have Low Gluten Hosts available at all Masses.

When you arrive for Mass, let the greeter know you would like a low gluten host.

Please come up the center right hand aisle any time during Communion.

Please Remember in Prayer our parishioners and those connected with our parish who have recently died, especially:

Robert Clark

We have a hearing loop available for hearing aid users. It works best near the outside of the sanctuary, closest to the system wiring.

Our Parish Health Ministry will be offering Free Blood Pressure Checks after all Masses NEXT WEEKEND, January 10 & 11 in Room 1.
